++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Some residual rain in the east tonight, largely dry elsewhere.

This Evening and Tonight:
Rain in the far east will slowly fizzle out through the evening, the region becoming largely dry. Some clearing skies in the west, allowing areas of mist or fog to develop around dawn. Minimum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Saturday:
Still a bit cloudy in the far east at first but otherwise, a dry morning with plenty of sunshine. Some variable cloud during the afternoon, though feeling pleasantly warm. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Warm with sunny spells and variable cloud through the period. Largely dry but a chance of showers on most days and perhaps a more organised band of rain on Monday.
